Class History

On a warm September morning in 1941, a new first grade, confused and scared, started on their long journey with twelve years of education ahead of them. In our first year, we were under the direction of Miss June Prentice. This year we were at West Point because Shadeland School had burned in June. Out of the senior class graduating this year, four started together in the first grade. They are Eva Jane McDowell, Mary Louise Kuipers, Ruth Ann Peyton, and Dick Giltner.

In our second year we came to a brand new school called Shadeland High School. Miss June Prentice also came with us. Twin boys, Jack and Jim Mays, and Bonnie Riley joined us this year.

During our third and fourth grades, Mrs. Dorothy Macy was our teacher. Dora Mae Hockema joined us this year.

Mr. Clarence Mitchell taught us in our fifth and sixth grades. Delores White joined us in the spring of the fifth grade and Ruth Haynes, Alice Remsburg, and Donald Graves during the sixth grade. This year we began to think about getting to go upstairs.

In the fall of 1947, we moved upstairs into a big assembly. Here we had different rooms and different teachers for every class. Gee, those seniors scared us! Wonder if we will ever be a great big person like that? Miss Mary Jane Sholty was our class sponsor and Mr. Orville Pearl, sponsored us in the eighth grade.

Finally we became "green freshmen". This year Sara Roche, Mary Ann Roth, Lloyd Bailey, Roxie Ann Bratton, Charles Clark, Tom Conrad, Byron Evans, Don Parker, Barbara Phillips, and Frank Goodman joined us. Our class officers were the following: Eva Jane McDowell, president; Ruth Haynes, vice-president; Marilyn Brown, secretary-treasurer; Ruth Ann Peyton, reporter. Our sponsor was Mrs. Viola Rosen. We lost Lucille Childress, Marilyn Brown, and Margaret Hawkins.

The following year we became sophomores. This year we received our crimson and gray sweaters. Our sponsor was Mr. Don Hampton. The following officers were elected: Dick Giltner, president; Eva Jane McDowell, vice-president; Ruth Haynes, secretary-treasurer; and Sara Roche, reporter. Cheerie Amos and Robert Dye entered our class and Lester Martin joined us in the middle of this year. We lost Lloyd Bailey, Tom Conrad, Robert Dye, Charles Clark, Madeline Dawson, Byron Evans, Don Parker and Harold Stillions.

In our junior year we became great sellers of ice cream. We presented the play, "We Shook the Family Tree", under the direction of Mrs. Jane Packard. This year we received our class rings. On April 26, we honored the seniors with a dinner and dance with the "Blue Notes", a four piece band, furnishing the dance music. We chose our motto as: "Friendship is the only cement that will hold the world together". Our class flower is the sweet pea. Mrs. Beulah Craw was our sponsor with Jack Mays, president; Dick Giltner, vice-president; Ruth Ann Peyton, secretary; Mary Louise Kuipers, treasurer; Don Welsh, assistant treasurer; and Ruth Haynes, reporter. This year we gained Don Welsh and lost Virginia Gee, Barbara Phillips, Regina Sexton, and Bill James.

At last our senior year arrived with the following officers: Jack Mays, president; Dick Giltner, vice-president; Ruth Ann Peyton, secretary; Mary Louise Kuipers, treasurer; and Mary Ann Roth, reporter. Our sponsor was Mr. Robert Hunt until February 6, then Mr. William Fleming took his place. In September, we sponsored a fish fry and in March a chili supper. On March 12 and 13, we presented our play, "Feudin' Over Yonder", under the direction of Mrs. Jane Packard. On April 18, the juniors honored us with a lovely dinner and dance. Baccalaureate was held May 17 with Rev. Richard Lancaster giving the address. Commencement was held May 19. To finish our twelve years of school, we took a trip to Florida.

Yes, twelve years ago we thought the day would never come when we would be "dignified seniors", but now it has come and gone. We are on our own now, in this wide wonderful world to someday be a success. As the years come and go, we will never forget the memories of our Alma Mater, Shadeland High School, our wonderful teachers, and friends. Good-bye and good luck.

Success

If you're afraid of a setback or two,
If you're afraid of a jolt or a jar,
If hard work is something which terrifies you,
Then, stay where you are.

If more than a chance for success you desire,
If you're afraid of a blow and its smart,
If you've no pluck for the fight when you tire,
Then, you'd better not start.

If you can't trudge through the rain and snow,
Forgetting the calm of an easier task,
If always the comforts of life you must know,
For glory don't ask.

If you can't stand to the battle alone,
Can't cling to your purpose through thick and through thin,
If pleasure means more than the goal you would own
You've no chance to win.

If you've the will to be somebody here,
If stronger your spirit rebounds from a blow,
If you will work for it year after year
Success you may know.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of nineteen hundred and fifty-three, being of sound mind and super intelligence are about to leave our fondest memories at dear old Shadeland High School. We hereby declare this our lost will and testament and wish to dispose of the following possessions.

First, to our dear faculty who have put up with us all through the years, we will:

To Mr. Hunt the success at Purdue University as he has had at Shadeland High School.

To Mr. Fleming the ability to be the sponsor of the 1954 Seniors.

To Mr. Miller basketball players like the senior boys.

To Mr. Frist noiseless tools to use when the seniors are taking I. Q. tests.

To Mrs. Rosen students who will co-operate with her the way we have.

To Miss Kirchbaum better luck with future Home Ec. classes.

To Mrs. Packard all of our letters--present--past--future, for outside reading.

To Mrs. Craw a baseball bat to keep her assembly in order.

To Mrs. Howenstine pupils to replace the seniors in band and glee club.

To the grade teachers we leave less students and more rooms and seats.

And now individually we will to the future Senior Class as follows:

FIRST: I, Dick Giltner, will and bequeath my '52 Ford to Ancil Ruppe.

SECOND: I, Donnie Graves, will and bequeath my ability to be the shortest boy in the Senior Class to Bob Funkhouser.

THIRD: I, Frank Goodman, will and bequeath my ability to get girls to set with me in the show to John Cook.

FOURTH: I, Ruth Haynes, will and bequeath my ability to become Annual queen to Richard Brown.

FIFTH: I, Dora Mae Hockemo, will and bequeath my blonde curls to Marlene Conrad.

SIXTH: I, Mary Louise Kuipers, will and bequeath my ability to get on the honor roll to Curtis Vanderkleed.

SEVENTH: I, Lester Martin, will and bequeath my ability to set on the bench during basketball games to Tom Altepeter.

EIGHTH: I, Jack Mays, will and bequeath my ability to be the Senior Class president to Jim Haynes.

NINTH: I, Jim Mays, will and bequeath my ability to own a Ford to Jim Ogden.

TENTH: I, Eva Jane McDowell, will and bequeath my dimples to June Goodman.

ELEVENTH: I, Ruth Ann Peyton, will and bequeath my brawn eyes to Norma White.

TWELFTH: I, Alice Remsburg, will and bequeath my little feet to Richard Williamson.

THIRTEENTH: I, Bonnie Riley, will and bequeath my shartness to Violet Byers.

FOURTEENTH: I, Sara Rache, will and bequeath my ability to be tiny to Barbara Boyer.

FIFTEENTH: I, Mary Ann Roth, will and bequeath my dark hair to Vondola Berry.

SIXTEENTH: I, Don Welsh, will and bequeath my ability to play dirty in basketball without getting fouled to Richard Brown.

LASTLY: I, Delores White, will and bequeath my curly hair to Jim Haynes.

Having disposed of our dear possessions, we leave this our last will and testament in the hands of the an-coming Seniors, the class of 1954.

Signed,

The Senior Class of 1953

Prophecy

As my girl friend and I were casually strolling down the main street of Shadeland, Indiana, we happened to see a new beauty salon. Of course, we decided that we each needed a new permanent. We walked in, and whom do you suppose we met? None other than the famous beautician, Ruth Haynes. After we had chatted about the past, Ruth informed us that she was blissfully married and furthermore, was blessed with adorable twin girls. Ruth then told us that Frank Goodman owned a music store around the corner and that Frank had become a great musician and salesman of musical instruments. We then told Ruth that we would have to be on our way if we expected to see everyone.

We stopped in at Goodman's Music Company and met Frank's secretary, Eva Jane McDowell. We were quite surprised to see her, since Ruth hadn't told us about her. She told us that Mr. Goodman was out to a business meeting and that he would be back any minute. Eva announced that though she was not yet married, she was engaged and would be married in the near future. Just as Eva finished telling us her life's history, Frank came in and then she had to continue with her work. We went into Frank's private office and chatted with him for awhile. He then told us he was married and that he had two fine children, a boy and a girl. After we had bade Frank good-bye, we visited the school. While we were glancing over the teachers' chart, we noticed that two of our former upperclassmen were on the faculty of Shadeland School. They were Ruth Ann Peyton, now Mrs. Richard Brown, and Dick Giltner. Ruth Ann was teaching the first and second grades while Dick was teaching high school science. We talked with them for awhile about their teaching careers. As it was getting late, we hurriedly left to catch our plane for New York.

When we landed in New York the next day at La Guardia Field, we discovered that Jim Mays was the Head Aeronautical Engineer at the airport. Much to our surprise Jim told us that he was still single with not a prospect in sight. We questioned Jim about Jack and he then told us that Jack owned the Cadillac Motor Sales & Service. After hearing about Jim's career, we took a taxi to Jack May's place of business. Jack informed us that he was quite happily married; then he invited us to dinner that evening of June 10, 1965. Mrs. Jack Mays met us at the door. After dinner, as we were talking over the past, we happily learned that Alice Remsburg, now Mrs. Ronnie Long, was a star of the Metropolitan Opera. Since she was currently playing in New York on Wednesday, we hastened to buy tickets to see her in Madame Flutterby. After the opera, we went backstage to her dressing room and there found the glamorous Miss Remsburg as friendly and talkative as she always was in high school.

Since one of our friends was sick, we went to the hospital to visit her and whom should we run into but Bonnie Riley. Bonnie told us that Mary Ann Roth and Sara Roche were also nurses in the same hospital and that Delores White also worked there as a stenographer. After visiting our friend, we talked with all the girls for a minute or two. Delores proudly showed us her lovely diamond which she had just received the evening before from one of the staff doctors at the hospital. We told the girls we didn't have much time, so we hurried back to our hotel. We were very much surprised to find when we went to pay our bill that Lester Martin was manager of our hotel. Since we had to get up early the next morning to go to church, we retired early.

After church we were talking to the minister; when we discovered that Donnie Graves was a missionary in Africa.

On Monday morning before we left New York, we planned to do some shopping. We went into one of the Fifth Avenue Shops to look at some evening gowns. When the models came out wearing the evening gowns, whom do you suppose we saw? The loveliest most graceful girl wearing the most exquisite gown of the most heavenly blue that matched perfectly her most heavenly blue eyes was none other than Mary Louise Kuipers. After we had selected our evening gowns and Mary was free to talk for a minute or two, we found out that Dora Mae Hockema worked in the same shop--as a secretary. Since it was Dora's lunch time, she invited us to eat lunch with her. We told her about seeing all the other kids except Don Welsh. She told us that Don owned a farm about ten miles out of Lafayette, Indiana. Dora then told us that since she was going home on vacation in a few days, we might as well stay and ride home with her in her new Cadillac (which she had purchased from Jack May's Cadillac Sales & Service, of course).

As we were nearing Lafayette, we decided to stop and see Don Welsh for awhile. Don naturally was in the field plowing with two of the cutest little boys riding on the tractor with him. Of course we guessed Don was married and the two little boys were his. As we were talking with Don, he told us he had married one of his high school sweethearts. Because we were very tired from our long journey we bade Don good-bye and came on home. Although we had a nice visit in New York, we were more than happy to get home and away from the big city.

A Patch of Blue

Sometimes when the rain keeps fallin'
And the road seems mighty rough
And you just can't help a-thinkin'
That this life is mighty tough;
Just you smile and keep a-lookin'--
(And what I'm tellin' you is true)--
Somewhere peepin' through the rain clouds
There's a little patch of blue.
Sure, you've had a heap of trouble,
And I've had some troubles, too;
But we'll find, if we keep smilin',
That little patch of blue.

--Mrs. F. O. Hendricks

Class Poem

Stop! Look! Listen! Look below and you shall see,
Information concerning the Shadeland graduates of "53".

Jack Mays our class president is he,
Who is handsome and full of glee.
To Purdue this fall he will flee,
A pretty good dairy farmer he'll be.

Mary Louise Kuipers the treasurer of our class,
Was always busy at some little task.
A cute little girl with pretty blue eyes,
Will turn the heads of all the college guys.

Dick Giltner who owns a "52" Ford,
Never has an occasion to be bored.
With the young girls he's quite a treat,
So you can see he's hard to beat.

Ruth Ann Peyton, so bright and gay,
Plans to be a teacher someday.
And with a little guy named Rich,
She's almost sure to make a hit.

Don Welsh, who has a blue Chevie,
Claims it's better than an old tin Lizzy.
With a wave in his hair and a twinkle in his eye,
Was a success in athletics at Shadeland High.

Sara Roche our yell leader was she,
When she was yelling she was busy as a "Bee".
To Nurses' Training she'll go this fall,
To "Woo" some Doctor nice and tall.

Our basketball star this year was Jim Mays,
Who always kept the girls in a daze.
To Purdue this fall he will run,
For an engineer he hopes to become.

Mary Ann Roth, a very pretty girl,
Always had the boys' heads in a whirl.
Her career she plans as an R. N.,
For all her patients she'll have a big grin.

This Mortin kid that we call "Less",
Was never much good when it came to tests.
In the Senior Class he was our clown,
There's never a dull moment when he's around.

Ruth Haynes who was our annual Queen,
Will answer some man's happy dream.
A beautician she plans as her career,
For this let's all give her a cheer.

Frank Goodman a handsome lad is he,
Is always fun and full of glee.
A station owner he hopes to be,
Maybe he'll fix our flat tires for free.

Eva Jane McDowell a very lovely creature,
Hopes to become a grade schoolteacher.
She has two dimples and cheeks that are rosy,
And when she gets married her home will be cozy

Donnie Graves is sure to succeed,
As a missionary he wants to be.
He was always quite as a mouse,
You could never tell when he was about.

Bonnie Riley who was always chewing gum,
Was a little bashful but always had fun.
A registered nurse she hopes to become,
For all her patients she'll be lots of fun.

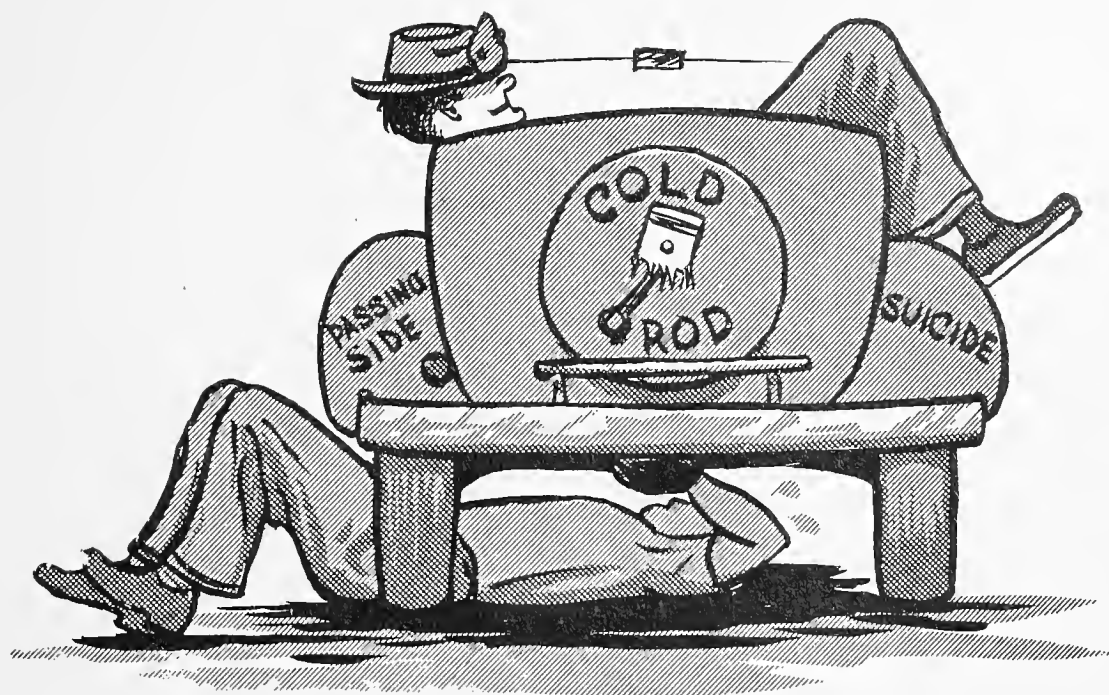

Alice Remsburg our singing star,
With all her talent she'll go afar.
Alice Lee is nice and sweet,
For some nice guy she'll be a treat.

This little White girl that we call "Dee",
A stenographer she'd like to be.
And when her Billie is around,
Dee's little heart is bound to pound.

Our Majorette was tall this year,
And she was a blonde, or did you hear?
As an airline hostess, she'll rise to fame,
Dora Mae Hockema is her name.

By now you should have the general trend,
So we'll just stop and say "The End".

Mrs. Jane Huntington
